

Triana Yentzen

ECONOMIST · MPP STUDENT AT GERALD R. FORD SCHOOL

+1 (202) 299-6839 | [triana.yentzen@gmail.com](mailto: triana.yentzen@gmail.com) | triana.yentzen

Education

University of Michigan

MASTER OF PUBLIC POLICY

- Obtained Weiser Diplomacy Fellowship

Ann Arbor, MI, USA

Sep. 2019 - May. 2021 (expected)

Universidad de Chile

M.Sc. IN ECONOMICS

- Graduated with Honors
- First Distinction in Microeconomics Degree Examination
- Obtained merit based scholarship

Santiago, Chile

Mar. 2011 - Dec. 2014

Universidad de Chile

B.S. IN ECONOMICS

- Graduated with Honors
- Student Council Representative

Santiago, Chile

Mar. 2006 - Dec. 2010

Professional Experience

Vice-Presidency of Sectors and Knowledge, Inter-American Development Bank

RESEARCH FELLOW

- Assisted Vice-President Santiago Levy, and advisor Mariana Alfonso in research projects focusing on education and labor markets.
- Participated in the elaboration of Santiago Levy's book "Under-Rewarded Efforts: The Elusive Quest for Prosperity in Mexico."
- Produced literature reviews, descriptive statistics, regression analysis, and initial drafts of papers.
- Designed the survey questionnaire for the end-line of an impact evaluation.

Washington, DC, USA

Jul. 2016 - Jun. 2019

Poverty Group, The World Bank

CONSULTANT

- Part of the South Asia Team for Statistical Development, and the Global Poverty Working Group (an interdisciplinary technical working group established to improve the quality and frequency of poverty and inequality data).
- Harmonized surveys, prepared methodological documents, produced analysis and statistics for poverty related reports.
- Maintained the South Asia Data Lab, a portal with visualized statistics on poverty, growth, and inequality focused on the region.

Washington, DC, USA

Jul. 2015 - Jun. 2016

Development Research Group, The World Bank

CONSULTANT

- Produced and maintained the International Income Distribution Database, a global harmonized household survey database comparable across country/time.
- Harmonized surveys and developed programs for systematic consistency and quality checks.

Santiago, Chile

Oct. 2013 - Jun. 2015

Studies Division, Secretariat of the Presidency Ministry

ANALYST

- Prepared reports of key social and economic indicators for Ministry authorities and the President of Chile.
- Produced studies focused on income distribution, poverty, and security.
- Developed an elections simulation program to analyze the impact of changing the Chilean legislation in the election of congress representatives.

Santiago, Chile

Jul. 2012 - Sep. 2013

Guernica Consultores

RESEARCH ASSISTANT / CONSULTANT

- Participated in several impact evaluations, including housing programs and water subsidies.
- Produced literature review, data set simulation, descriptive statistics, and estimation using matching procedures.

Santiago, Chile

Dec. 2009 - Jun. 2016

Academic Experience

Universidad Tecnica Federico Santa Maria

Santiago, Chile

LECTURER - ECONOMICS IA

Mar. 2015 - Jun. 2015

- Introduction to Economics and Consumer Theory

Universidad Tecnica Federico Santa Maria

Santiago, Chile

LECTURER - MICROECONOMICS I

Jun. 2013 - Dec. 2014

- Consumer and Production Theory

School of Economics and Business, Universidad de Chile

Santiago, Chile

TEACHING ASSISTANT

Mar. 2008 - Jun. 2012

- Microeconomics I, Microeconomics II.
- Introduction to Macroeconomics, Macroeconomics II, International Trade.
- Urban Economics (graduate).
- Conversation and Business English.

Skills

Software

- DATA ANALYSIS: Stata (advanced) · MATLAB (intermediate) · R (basic)
- DATA VISUALIZATION: Tableau (intermediate) · GIS (basic)
- OTHERS: L^AT_EX (advanced) · Microsoft Office (intermediate) · Photoshop (intermediate)

Languages

- Spanish (native)
- English (fluent)

References

Santiago Levy

PRESIDENT

Latin American and Caribbean Economic Association

✉ santiagolevy4@gmail.com

David Locke Newhouse

SENIOR ECONOMIST

The World Bank

✉ dnewhouse@worldbank.org